

GLOBAL WARRIORS

THE WSU GHA MONTHLY NEWS BULLETIN

4/7/18: World Health Day. With the goal of extending health coverage to 1 billion people worldwide by 2030, the World Health Organization dedicated this year's World Health Day to Universal Health Coverage. Highlights include a policy forum known as the "Tokyo Declaration" and events around the world. Click to learn more.
(Source: WHO)

3/18/18: WSU ER Physician & Urban Health Champion featured as "Healthcare Hero" Crain's 17th annual Health Care Heroes awards honor metro Detroit health care professionals. Dr. Tolulope Sonuyi, founded DLIVE (Detroit Life is Valuable Everyday), the first hospital-based violence intervention program in Michigan. Read the full article here.
(Source: Crain's Detroit)

UPCOMING EVENTS

- WSU GHA Global Health Week (Apr 30 - May 4, Detroit). Deadline to apply is May 1st. A series of events designed to innovate, educate, and inspire the world of urban and global health. Click to learn more
- Ignite to Innovate Global & Urban Health Innovation Competition (May 2, Detroit). Deadline to apply is April 23rd. An exciting opportunity to showcase ideas & solutions in global health. Awards include mentorship & financial support. Click to learn more
- WSU Global Health Alliance Inaugural Conference: "Collaborations & Innovations in Global Health" (May 3, Detroit). Topics of discussion include research, education, and capacity building. Students, faculty, and organizations invited to learn & collaborate. Click to learn more
- McGill Summer Institute in Infectious Diseases and Global Health (Jun 11 - 22, Montreal). Deadline to apply is May 1st. Click to register and learn more

GLUE SCHOLAR SPOTLIGHT

Balasundari Krishnan, MBBS

- Graduate of Rajah Muthiah Medical College, India
- 7 Years of experience as a medical officer in a LMIC
- Global health champion!

EDUCATIONAL

Global & Urban Health Equity (GLUE) Seminars

"Super GLUE!": Disaster Response

May 1, 2018
6:00p - 8:30p

Margherio Family Conference Room
WSU School of Medicine

Wayne State University Global Health Alliance

The WSU GHA is committed to promoting health equity in the global and urban (Detroit) setting, educating healthcare professionals in our academic sphere, and facilitating the evolution of the field of global health to be collaborative, multi-disciplinary, partnerships that dignify & respect those we seek to serve. Please join our efforts!